Mr. Bennett will be responsible for leading Paragon's international sales efforts.

"We are excited that George has joined the Paragon team as our new Vice President of International Sales," said John Busic, Paragon's CEO. "George brings to his role at Paragon a tremendous depth of experience in working with several key international markets. He will be instrumental in expanding our business, and ensuring that we continue to reduce CO2 emission around the globe."

Mr. Bennett has more than 25 years experience in the technology industry, with a majority of his time spent in International markets. Most recently George served as the Vice President of Financial Services for Cordy's Inc., where he focused on management and sales programs for Financial Services in the Americas. Previously, he was Vice President of International Sales at HandySoft where he directed all sales programs and sales teams for operations in Asia Pacific, EMEA and Latin America. Mr. Bennett's extensive international IT industry experience also includes positions as the Vice President of Worldwide Channel Sales at FileNet, Vice President of Sales at Vision Solutions, director of Strategic Markets at Silvon Software Inc. and director of Worldwide Midrange Sales at StorageTek.

About Paragon Airheater Technologies

Paragon Airheater Technologies specializes in the manufacturing of high-performance seals, basketed elements, and replacement parts for rotary, regenerative airheaters. They provide trained technical personnel to perform routine inspection services, condition assessments, outage planning, diagnostic services or emergency maintenance and repair. Paragon's exclusive and patented design for both radial/axial and circumferential/bypass seals are specifically designed to provide maximum efficiency while withstanding the harsh operating conditions normally encountered in the airheater.
